[REDACTED]

On 7 August 1953, 60 to 70 twin-engine transports of the Li-2 type and 10 to 25 biplanes of the Po-2 type were parked at Schoenefeld airfield. Commander at the field was [REDACTED] Colonel [REDACTED] (fau), about 45 years old and wore golden epaulets. On 8 August, a new transport unit, similar to the old one, arrived at Dallgow-Doberitz railroad station. Colonel Voichakov (fau) was the chief of the unit. He also wore golden epaulets. Motor vehicles [REDACTED] were assigned to the new unit.

The following incoming and outgoing shipments were observed at the field:

5 August. Three boxcars loaded with aircraft parts left the field for Moscow.

6 August. Flatcar loaded with a motor vehicle left for Dresden-Klotzsche.

7 August. At 5 a.m., a train with [REDACTED] and consisting of 5 converted boxcars, 30 flatcars and 12 additional cars, loaded with about 150 air force officers and EM, 10 to 15 jeeps, 2 or 3 heavy prime movers, miscellaneous equipment, billeting equipment and supply goods left the field and moved to Falkenberg via Gruenau.

8 August. At 6 a.m., a train, [REDACTED] of 5 converted boxcars, 29 boxcars and 14 flatcars, loaded with 2 or 3 prime movers, motor vehicles, billeting equipment, other equipment and air force personnel moved in the same direction. At 8:45 p.m., a train, [REDACTED] of 4 converted boxcars, 36 boxcars and 10 flatcars was observed on the same line. The train was loaded with the same type equipment and with air force personnel as the one observed at 6 a.m.

9 August. At 2:15 p.m., the last shipment on the afore mentioned line was observed. The train had [REDACTED] and consisted of 3 converted boxcars, 31 boxcars and 10 flatcars which carried the same type load as previously. Motor vehicles observed included trucks with [REDACTED] such as

[REDACTED] tank trucks, jeeps and sedans. Three or 4 aircraft engines and about 10 glass globes, each about 80 cm in diameter, were observed. The glass globes whose purpose was unknown had a round aperture, about 25 cm in diameter, with a metal border. The unit further loaded horses and pigs on one car each. At 11:47 a.m., a train, [REDACTED] consisting of 24 boxcars and 20 flatcars arrived at the field coming from Dallgow-Doberitz. About 50 air force soldiers, supply goods, billeting equipment, crates, aircraft engines and spare parts, some jeeps, 15 to 20 tank trucks, about 5 trucks, and about 3 prime movers were on the train. 10 August. At 9:40 a.m., a similar shipment consisting of 46 railroad cars, [REDACTED] arrived from the same direction.
